PIRATES HAVE INVADED THE PRAIRIE

(GRAND PRAIRIE, TX)—January 12, 2012—Ibidis Mortem Productions is proud to announce the Pirates on the Prairie Concert, taking place on Saturday, January 28th at 6:00 p.m. at the Uptown Theater in Grand Prairie, TX. It's going to be an evening of pirate music, swashbuckling fun, and nautical nonsense for the whole family. The evening stars Grand Prairie's own pirate band, the Bilge Pumps, features the pirate group, the Pride O' Bedlam from Houston and the D/FW Celtic duo Traveller Song. This event will appeal to that inner buccaneer that's trying hard to get out.

The event will take place at the Uptown Theater, located at 120 E. Main Street in downtown Grand Prairie. Lobby doors will open at 5:00 p.m., theater doors will open at 5:30, and Celtic music from Traveller Song will begin at 6:00, followed by the piratical songs of the Pride O' Bedlam and ultimately by the rum-drenched music and comedy of the Bilge Pumps.

Admission will be $12.00 for adults and $7.00 for children 5-12. Tickets are for general seating and can be purchased in advance by calling the Uptown Box Office at 972-237-UPTN (8786), at the theater on the day of the event, or by visiting the theater's online box office.

The Bilge Pumps are a pirate music group who specialize in performances that combine nautical songs, sea shanties, and Celtic music with a huge dose of silly comedy. The group performs larger than life in their authentic-feeling pirate-themed costumes and their variety of instruments backing up their bellowing voices. They have been in demand all over the country for their entertainingly goofy stage antics and their musical skill as they take everyone's favorite nautical music and put their own particular spin on it.

The Pride O' Bedlam, who have performed for years at faires and festivals around the Houston area take nautical music and give it an overhaul and driving beat that is infectious to all who hear it. Plus, they're singing pirates, how could you not like that?

Traveller Song is a Celtic music duo that has performed at pubs and festivals in the Dallas/Ft. Worth area and can offer everything from rousing pub songs to quiet music appropriate for an evening in the highlands of Scotland.
