

Loose Notes

By Andy Eng
Staff Writer
The Scene Magazine
June 2015

Over the Memorial Day weekend, we ventured into Galveston County on a tour that included the Bilge Pumps at Railean Rum, The Starr Jernigan Band at San Leon Beach Pub, stops at a few of Galveston's brewpubs, on the Open Mic hosted by Kelly Chambers and Chris Bergeron at Crow's Southwest Cantina on the Strand – Quite the run.

The tour at the award-winning Railean Rum Distillery was a first for us where we enjoyed their comfortable and humungous new tasting room providing San Leon a great place to hang out.

Totally unexpected was catching The Bilge Pumps, a bawdy fun pirate drinking band what has a following like you wouldn't believe, complete with costume dress of the day.

The place doesn't have a kitchen just yet however Calvin Walker, an area paternal favorite, provided pizza deliveries while getting in a couple dances with his flock of festive friends.